

General School Administration

Administrative Personnel - Reassignment and/or Transfer

School District administrative structure shall follow the pattern as outlined in the District's organizational chart.

The legal authority of the Board of Education shall be transmitted through the Superintendent along specific paths as shown in the Board approved organizational chart.

The Superintendent shall have freedom to reorganize lines of authority represented on the Chart and to revise the Chart subject to Board approval of major changes and/or the elimination and creation of positions. Included in these changes may be the reassignment and/or the transfer of administrative personnel by the Superintendent to keep the administrative structure compatible with the needs for supervision and accountability throughout the District. This authority includes the transfer of administrators between buildings within the District including specific school sites and the central administration office.
