pictures and words.

Hints

Discovering print

To help your child succeed,
you can:

- Talk about pictures and words in family photo albums, junk mail, magazines and newspapers.
- Point to pictures and words on things that your child touches often (clothes, toys, crayons, cereal boxes).
- Point to big letters in signs of familiar restaurants, grocery stores, and road signs.
- Cut out pictures and signs from cereal boxes and other products and use to make puzzles or play matching card games with your child.

To make this activity more challenging, you can:

- See if your child knows what signs, pictures, words and numbers mean.
- Point to letters in words while saying the words slowly.
- Have your child say the names and sounds of the letters in the words.
- Have your child write the words.
