

How Does My Child Learn About Measurement?

- Your child learns to identify and compare sizes, lengths and weights of objects when he/she:
- Fills one cup with flour and two cups with milk;
- Checks on how tall he/she has grown in the past three months;
- Says there are more raisins in the bowl than on his/her plate.