

How Does My Child Learn About Shapes and Space?

- Your child learns about shapes of objects and their positions in space when he/she:
- Knows how to explain where things are in space;
- Talks about shapes of different things he/she sees on a trip to the grocery store;
- Builds things with blocks, sand or sticks;
- Draws pictures.