Hints

Talking about what happened in the past

To help your child succeed,
you can:

- Talk about what your child really enjoyed.
- Talk about something that happens regularly.
- Ask your child simple questions (Did Grandma give you a big hug?).
- Show your child pictures or photographs of what happened (birthday cake, presents).
- Begin a sentence and have your child fill in the blank (At the park we saw three ____?).

To make this activity more challenging,
you can:

- Help your child tell things in the right order (What did you do first? Then, what happened?).
- Have your child draw pictures that go with what happened.
- Help your child write simple sentences under each picture.
- Your child can staple the pictures together to make a book.
- Encourage your child to read his/her book to other people.
