

Activity

Talking about TV shows

After watching a TV show, ask your child some questions. For example:

- What was it about?
- What did you like about the show?
- What didn't you like about the show?
- Who was your favorite person in the show and why?

Talking about TV shows

To help your child succeed,
you can:

- Do this activity with a video your child has watched many times.
- Do this activity with a picture book your child has read many times.
- Watch a show or video that also has toys or a picture book that goes with it.
- Watch programs and videos that are slow moving and have lots of repetition (e.g., Barney).

To make this activity more challenging,
you can:

- Talk about the beginning, middle and end of the story. Help your child say things in the right order.
- Talk about events and characters that are real and events and characters that are pretend.
- Ask your child questions about opinions, thoughts and feelings (Why do you think she left? How do you think he felt?).
- Have your child draw a picture of what the show was about.
- Encourage your child to act out his/her favorite part with dolls or stuffed animals.
